Quick Reference Guide: 2011 Audi Q5

Pricing

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>MSRP</th>
<th>Available Models</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.0 TFSI®, quattro®, Tiptronic® $35,200</td>
<td>Premium and Premium Plus Models</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>3.2 FSI®, quattro, Tiptronic $42,500</td>
<td>Premium Plus and Prestige Models</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Destination charge $875

On sale: Sept. 3, 2010

2011 Model Year Changes

- 2.0T model introduced with 8-speed Tiptronic transmission and quattro
- 2.0T available as a Premium and Premium Plus model
- 3.2 available as a Premium Plus and Prestige model w/ 6-speed Tiptronic transmission and quattro
- 3.2 models include S line® exterior package and 19-inch wheels standard
- Audi adaptive lights included on 3.2 Prestige model
- Trip computer now includes an efficiency display (to help maximize fuel efficiency)
- HD Radio™ now included with Audi MMI® Navigation plus (optional on Premium Plus, standard on Prestige)
- 20-inch five-arm wheel package discontinued
- Six CD changer discontinued
- New Teak Brown exterior color
- Audi adaptive cruise control (optional on Prestige)

Powertrain and Performance

- 2.0 TFSI direct injection engine: 211 hp, 258 lb-ft
  - 0-60 mph and EPA est. mpg
    - 8-speed Tiptronic, quattro: 7.1 seconds, 20/27 mpg (city/hwy)
- 3.2 FSI direct injection engine: 270 hp, 243 lb-ft
  - 0-60 mph and EPA est. mpg
    - 6-speed Tiptronic, quattro: 6.7 seconds, 18/23 mpg (city/hwy)

Product Highlights

- JD Power and Associates Automotive Performance, Execution and Layout (APEAL) Study 2010 finds that Audi Q5 has top appeal in its segment
- Audi Q5 wins OFF ROAD magazine’s OFF ROAD AWARD for 2010, as well as best of class in the German magazine auto motor und sport
- Strategic Vision ranked Q5 at the top of its 2010 Total Quality Index (Luxury Crossover)
- Best in class 4,400-pound towing capacity (others 3,500 lbs. or less)
- Audi drive select unique to the segment, offering customizable engine/throttle mapping, transmission shift characteristics, steering, and suspension
• Innovative ESP system recognizes when the roof rail crossbars are in place and adjusts accordingly
• Key competitors are the Acura RDX, BMW X3, Infiniti EX35, Land Rover LR2 HSE, Mercedes Benz GLK350, the Volvo XC60 and the previous generation Lexus RX350
• Bang & Olufsen® 505W 14-speaker sound system
• Standard three-zone climate control (unique to segment)
• Standard 12-way power front seats with leather seating surfaces throughout, and standard rear reclining/sliding seats (latter is unique to segment)